

Witnesses: Charles Tunnell
Isaac Tunnell

Then came: Charles Tunnell

Note: the testatrix signed the will with her mark

Note: letters of administration were granted to David A. Stuart who gave bond with Peter E. Adkins, security in the sum of $300.00

Folio 144 ELIZABETH E. COLLINS

06/05/1863

06/15/1863

Bequeaths to:

1. Letty E. Marvel --niece
-to have 1 tulip bed quilt and 1 large black trunk and the 1/2 of the testatrix's clothes
2. Elizabeth Atkins --wife of Samuel Atkins
-to have the other 1/2 of the testatrix's wearing clothes
3. John Atkins --son of Samuel R. Atkins
-to have 1 bed and furn.
4. Samuel R. Atkins --brother
-to have the remainder of the estate and a debt due the testatrix from Kendal Atkins of $40.00 executed the 5th of June 1863

Witnesses: Jacob Warren
James Anderson

Then came: Jacob S. Warren

Note: the testatrix signed the will in her own hand

Note: letters of administration were granted to Greensbury Lynch who gave bond with George W. Maull, security in the sum of $300.00

Folio 146 LOUDER N. HEARN, of Greensborough, Broad Creek Hundred 05/26/1863 06/16/1863
"being weak in body . . ."

Bequeaths to:

1. Jane S. Hearn --wife
-to have the testator's mansion farm consisting of the tract on which the testator now resides with all the lands adjoining during her natural life and should the lands fail in any one year then to have a sufficient support and that the deficiency shall be made up by the testator's other farms.
-to have all the household furniture and goods she may need, 1 mare and carriage, 2 cows and calves, 1 yoke of oxen, 1 pair of mules, 6 head of sheep and 5 head of hogs in the pen and 1 young sow with pig, 1 wane cart, all the pork, bacon, lard, and other family stores and what corn and fodder she wants and $500.00 in gold and the testator's wheat fan for the use of the farm and the testator's other farms.
-remainder of the estate to be divided between the testator's wife and 2 sons
-named executrix
2. Joseph R. Hearn --son
Loudner T. Hearn --son
-to have the testator's iron safe and all the lands bequeathed to their mother after her death and all the testator's other lands to be divided between them share and share alike and the testator's cedar swamp to be divided between them by a line running east and west through it to make it equal parts
-the schooling of the testator's children and other expenses to be paid out of the proceeds of the testator's farms and should there not be a sufficient amount of the personal estate to pay debts and legacies, then to be made up out of the farms and that the balance be deposited in the Farmer's Bank at Georgetown or some other safe place