

and then divided equally among them share and share alike and should John Moore die before coming of age 21, then his share to be divided among the survivors

Witnesses: William C. Penton
Minos H. C. Wilson
John Harper

Then came: William C. Penton

Note: the testator signed the will with his mark

Note: letters of administration were granted to John Wright, who gave bond with Minos H. C. Wilson, security in the sum of $5000.00

Folio 66

DAGWORTHY DERICKSON, of Indian River Hundred 09/25/1867 04/13/1870

"being weak in body . . ."

Bequeaths to:

1. Priscilla Derickson --wife

-to have 2 feather beds, bedding and bedsteads
-to have the testator's homestead farm whereon the testator now resides to have for her natural life in lieu of her right of dower in the estate and to begin at a stump corner of the land of Alphonso Hazzard, the "Harris Farm" and the said Homestead farm and thence in the old line southeasterly until it strikes a ditch and thence. . .until it strikes the center of the public road leading to Lewes Town and thence. . .to a point opposite the fence now standing in the field on the easterly side of the said road thence. . .until it reaches the run of the branch and at her death the land to descend to the testator's son John and should John die w/out heirs, then to the testator's grandson Dagworthy Derickson Burton

2. John W. Derickson --son

-to have the testator's gold watch and chain and seals attached and the testator's gold spectacles and also the sum of $200.00 in cash
-to have the "Harris Farm" with the contents of acres of land that may be added in consequence of the new line as above
-to have 15 acres of woodland which the testator owns adjoining the land of Lemuel Burton and others.

3. Dagworthy Derickson Burton--grandson

-to have the young mare called "Kit" 1 pair of young steers his choice of those under 3 years old and also to have the sum of $1000.00
-to have the farm now tenanted by William Harris and which was purchased by the testator from John Marsh and wife

4. Ann Eliza Burton --daughter (wife of William C. Burton)

-remainder of the testator's goods, stock, chattels, merchandise, household furniture, bonds, judgements, cash, and personal property of every kind to be divided between Ann and testator's widow and son John W. Derickson share and share alike.
-to have the farm on Rehoboth Bay including the marsh adjoining the lands of Peter R. Burton and others.
-to have the farm now tenanted by Manaen B. Marvel adjoining Peter R. Burton and others

5. William C. Burton --son-in-law

-named executor with testator's son John

Witnesses: Peter R. Burton
Walter D. Burton
Joseph B. Strafford

Then came: Peter R. Burton

Note: the testator signed the will in his own hand

Note: letters of administration were granted to John W. Derickson and William C. Burton who gave bond