

To son Alexander Warren - all that tract of land that I just settled on him. Also a small parcel that I sold him beginning at a forked white oak and then to a white oak back of the swamp next to the Widow Warren's and then to a corner post in the line of Apslum Warren's
To my daughter-in-law (widow of Eli Warren) - remaining part of my home tract during her widowhood on condition that she raise and school her three children
To grandson William Warren (son of Eli) - the above land given to my daughter-in-law in case she should marry and during the lifetime of my wife
To grandsons William Warren and Purnel Warren - the land given to the Widow Warren and my wife after their deaths or widowhood. This to begin at the Widow Warren's (widow of Benit Warren) deed and running as the road now leads to the mouth of the lane and running until it intersects Richard Coverdal's line
To my three children - remainder of estate
