

used for her support

That Negro boy Jobe shall be hired out until he is 25 years old and then be free

To Susannah Mason and James Williams (The children of my daughter Sarah) - the first 10 pounds from the hire of Negro Jobe to be paid to their guardian or father

That my Negro man London shall be free after the payment 21 pounds and my other three Negroes (not named) shall be free at my death

To my children William Burrows, Benjamin Burrows, Sarah Williams and the children of George Manlove by my daughter Mary and the children of Jonathan Burrows - remainder of estate

Executor: sons William and Benjamin

Witness: Warrin Burrows, Smith Walter, William Adams

21 November 1797 Then came William Adams and Warrin Burroughs

F:142

Benjamin Woolfe of Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred

22 October 1797

To my brother David - my chest, wearing apparel and my books

To Mary Woolfe (daughter of my brother Reece) - 6 silver teaspoons

To brother Henry Woolfe - rest of estate and that at my mother's death, he is to have my part of the plantation where she now lives

Executor: mother Mary Woolfe

Witness: Mary Orr, Cornelius Wiltbank

7 December 1797 Then came

F:143

Joseph Robison (signed with a mark to Joseph Robison)

21 October 1795

To son Joshua Robison - my plantation being the tract I bought of Denes Morris and containing 100 acres.

Also Negro man Phillip at the decease of my wife. Also Negro girl Nancy

To daughter Neomy Robison - Negro woman named Rachel and bed and furniture

To daughter Pacience Robinson - Negro girl named Nell, bed and furniture and cow

To wife - yoke of oxen, bed and furniture

To children Joshua, Neomy and Pacience - rest of estate

Executor: son John

Witness: Thomas Prittyman, Thomas Marvel, Wingate Jones

11 December 1797 Then came Thomas Marvel, Wingate Jones who swore to the will of Joseph Robinson

F:144

Isaac Evans

8 November 1797

To wife Betty Evans - one riding horse and the best yoke of oxen, three cows and calves, sow and pigs, seven sheep and two beds and furniture

To son Adam Evans - 7 acres known as Creek and 5 acres of     and 5 acres of Plant and all the land that my father has willed to me

To daughter Nancy Evans - riding mare, cow called Motley and bed and furniture that I had by her mother and black heifer

To daughter Salley Evans - blue chest and washing tub

To son Adam Evans - saddle and every day black coat

To sons Thomas Evans and Isaac Evans - wearing apparel and a lamb

Executor: wife

Witness: Solomon Evans, Jacob Evans, Eli Evans

12 December 1797 Then came