

F:157

Luke Thomas

24 May 1796

To wife Nansa - use of my land, house and plantation and movable estate for her widowhood

To son Abel Thomas - after wife's widowhood, all my land

To son James Thomas - 10 pounds and the land of Able dies without issue

To daughter Susanna Smith - one shilling

To daughter Mary Knox - one shilling

To daughter Anna Puckham - one shilling

To youngest children Rebeckah Johnson, Abel Thomas, Elizabeth Thomas, Milla Hammons Thomas, Sarah Thomas and James Thomas - remainder of estate

Executor: wife and son Abel

Witness: Thomas Marvel, Leah Marvel

Codicil to the above will of Luke Thomas

14 July 1797

To daughter Susanna Smith - 2 pounds

Witness: Thomas Marvel, Leah Marvel

6 February 1798 Then came

F:159

Jonathan Boyce

3 February 1798

To son Arthur Boyce - 100 acres call Boyce's Fancy. Also 1/4 part of my sawmill and stream situated on said land. Also 190 acres out of a new survey taken under the Pennsylvania Rights and known as Pleasure Renewed and adjoining Boyce's Fancy. Also Negro boy named Joe

To daughter Barsheba Vickers - 140 acres out of Pleasure Renewed including the plantation whereon _____ Vickers now lives and to be laid out most convenient so as to extend from Hopkin's land. Also 1/4 part of my sawmill for a term of 17 years from this date and then to return to my son Arthur. Also Negro girl named Tamer

To son Thomas Boyce - Negro boy named Mingo, bed and furniture, cow and calf

To son Eliazer Boyce - 210 acres called Dispute. This being the land whereon I now live. Also 100 acres of land known as John Chance and also 40 acres adjoining Dispute called Dispute Ended. Also half of my sawmill and stream. Also Negro boy named Levin. Also black yearling and the best bed that stands in the new room above and mahogany desk and a pair of gold sleeve buttons

To grandson James Moor - 30 pounds to be paid when he is of full age

To wife Ellender Boyce - for her widowhood; a small room of my dwelling house (her choice of below stairs or above), also her bed and furniture and cow and calf. Also old Negro woman Dinar to live with my wife "and do for her & the child". That my wife have reasonable maintenance out of my estate

To daughter Polly - what I have already given her

To children Polly, Arthur, Barsheba, Thomas, Eliazer - residue of property

Executor: sons Arthur and Thomas and my brother "William William Boyce"

Witness: John Benson, William Hobbs, Peter King

6 February 1798 Then came