

Note: letters of administration were granted to William Wilson who gave bond with Caleb Sipple, security in the sum of $500.00

Folio 50 STEPHEN MORRIS, farmer of Dagsborough Hundred 11/16/1852 01/20/1853

Bequeaths to:

1. David M. Morris --grandson
-to have all that part of the testator's land lying on the south side of the road leading from Robert Jefferson's to Joseph B. Morris's mill on condition that in the case of his death before he arrives at age that his heirs execute to his brother George F. Morris a deed of bargain and sale conveying all the right of the said David from the death of his father of in and to the lands of his father Stephen C. Morris and in case the deed is not executed, then the lands to return to the testator's estate as intestate land
2. Joseph B. Morris --grandson
-to have all that part of the testator's lands lying on the south and west side of the road leading from Robert Warren's to Bethesda Meeting House and on the north and west side of the road leading from Robert Jefferson's to Joseph B. Morris's mill and in case of his death before he arrives at age, then his heirs to execute a deed to his brother George F. Morris conveying all the right of the said Joseph Morris from the death of his father of in and to the lands of Stephen C. Morris and should that not be done, then the lands to return to the testator's estate as intestate land
3. Penelope K. Warren --granddaughter
-in consideration of her attendance on the testator in his last illness he devises to her a piece of land lying on the north and east side of the road leading from Robert Warren's to Bethesda Meeting House being on the beginning of the line of the testator's land in the road at Gill's Branch and running with the said road . . . to the beginning
-to have 1 bed and furn., and one fourth part of the personal estate.
4. Nancy A. Marvel --daughter
-whereas a part of the money, goods and chattels intended by the testator for her have been spent and consumed by the testator and his family and in consideration of the same she is to have all that part of the land not devised to the testator's granddaughter Penelope lying on the north and east side of the road leading from Robert Warren's to the Bethesda Meeting House
-to have all the rest and residue of the personal estate.
-named executrix of the will
5. George F. Morris --grandson
-testator's grandsons George, Joseph and David -should they die w/out leaving male issue, then the testator leaves and devises to the male issue of his son James Morris, deceased

Witnesses: William Anderson
 William Johnson

Then came: William Anderson

Note: the testator signed the will with his mark

Note: letters of administration were granted to Nancy Marvel, executrix who gave bond with Penelope Warren, security in the sum of $600.00

Folio 53 ROBERT BARR, of Nanticoke Hundred 03/15/1844 01/27/1853

"being in tolerable health . . ."

Bequeaths to:

1. Betsy Barr --wife
-to have in lieu of her dower share of the testator's lands the middle part of the lands whereon the testator's dwelling house stands during her natural life and which part