

Prohibitionists Hold Rally At Hudson

Steuben and DeKalb county Prohibitionists met in joint session at the Methodist church in Hudson, Sunday afternoon, October 24.

The colored Humming Bird Quintet of Muncie entertained with their negro spirituals, hymns and songs. It was the largest mass meeting of Prohibitionists in the last fifteen years. They gave a grand entertainment that was enjoyed by everyone.

The Rev. Dwight F. Steininger, candidate for prosecuting attorney, gave a fine address, stressing the need of the hour, elimination of the liquor traffic by ballot. "We as Christian citizens with the ballot of our citizenship must clear the way for our youth," they declare. "We must fight as our forefathers to transmit to those in the years to come not only continued freedom in government but also freedom from the curse of beverage alcohol."

The final rally will be held next Sunday evening at the Angola Nazarene church and everyone is urged to attend.
