

DEPOSITION ^BCase of David J. Marvel, No. 33,251

On this 12th day of July, 1899, at near Alum Cave, county of Sullivan, State of Ind., before me, A. J. Green, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Victoria May Parish, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 39 years of age; my post-office address is Alum Cave, Ind.
David J. Marvel who was a member of Co. K, 79th Ind.
Vol. Inf was my father. He died a pensioner Oct. 1, 1897, from Carbuncle on left shoulder and he had hemorrhage of bowels just before he died. His bowels swelled three or four nights before he died. The sore on his left shoulder turned green and extended around right a span from carbuncle.
 I don't know what the doctors said he died of. His wife my mother Amanda Marvel nee Brinn died March 1, 1897. David J. Marvel nor Amanda Brinn had ever been married before they married each other. They were never divorced or separated. They were married by Thomas Miller Joshua Miller father. When he died David J. Marvel he left only one child surviving him under sixteen years of age, viz. Robert Winiford Marvel who was born Oct. 9, 1881 and lacked just nine days of being 16 years old when his father died. I was not present at said child's birth but I know of the event well enough and I know he was born Oct. 9, 1881 and will be 18 years old at the time of this deposition.
