

F:109

Mary Smith

26 January 1786

To brother Peremore Smith - one shilling

To brother Barth__ Smith - one shilling

To brother John Smith - one shilling

To sister Charity - remainder of goods and chattels

Executor: sister

Witness: Thomas Marvel, Samuel Warren, Prissa Marvel

2 May 1786 Then came

F:109

Daniel Hosea, painter

1 April 1786

To wife Mary Hosea - remainder of property

To Thomas Bowlin (wife's brother) - small bay mare named Frolick and my old saddle and half of the paints and painting tools

Executor: Stephen Lewis, Esq. of Kent County

Witness: William Bowness, James Darter, Daniel Polk

10 April 1786 Stephen Lewis of Mispillion Hundred, declines to act as Executor and requests that the Letters of Administration be given to the widow

3 May 1786 Then came

F:110

Nathaniel Waller Senior, farmer

23 February 1786

To son Nathaniel - "the improvement whereon I now live If I were at home"

To all children - remainder of estate

Executor: son Nathaniel

Witness: Thomas Gray, Elijah LeCat, Noah Morgan

5 May 1786 Then came

F:111

John Tindall

4 April 1786

To son Samuel Tindall - the land on which I now live being 60 acres known by patent as Luck. Also my new right to a tract called Industry containing 100 acres. Also 46 acres called Liberty and 20 acres called Shorts Victory. This reserves my wife's use of the land for her widowhood. Also the mare that he now rides

To daughter Sary Jones - colt

To son John Tindle - 116 acres situated between John Darby's and John Peper's and "bak of the Hay Savannah"

To wife Betty - movable estate

To son Jesse Tindel - Negro boy Gim after wife's decease

To son Isaac Tindel - Negro girl named Sall after wife's decease

To children Nancy, Lovey, Hannah and Purnell Tindel - remainder of movables

Executor: wife and son Samuel

Witness: John Thoroughgood, Phillip Short

9 May 1786 Then came