General Notes: Obituary for Alexious Moss

From The Fort Wayne Weekly Sentinel, Thursday, Feb. 21, 1907 page 7

Alexious Moss was born in Adams County, Penn., Feb.14, 1822, and died on his 70th birthday.Feb.14, 1907. He was the son of George and Elizabeth Moss. His childhood was spent on a farm in Adams county, Pennsylvania. When he was about eight years old he, in company with his parents, emigrated to Seneca county, Ohio. He was united in marriage with Henrietta Mosier Sept. 14, 1848. Seven children were the result of this union. Four girls and three boys, of whom six, his beloved companion and seventeen grandchildren remain to mourn the loss of their loved one. The oldest daughter, Frances, preceded him in the great beyond.

He with his family came to Indiana in 1852, and settled in Allen county, which has been his home ever since. Several years ago he had a very severe fall from which he never recovered. He was converted at Leo in 1856 and became a member of UM Methodist Episcopal church at that point the same year.

He held the position of class leader at Leo until he moved to his late home near Robinson Chapel in 1864 at which point he then became a member and so remained until his death. He was class leader at this last church home for many years.

His life was that of a true Christian and of an ideal man. A kind husband and father, an obliging neighbor, and a loyal citizen, he lived his life of quiet usefulness, loved in his home, prized in the church for his worth of influence and service, respected in the community where he lived, he died in peace and has gone to his reward in heaven.

Will wait for his loved ones to come."

Lamar was attracted to Esther and according to the story my parents told me, Lamar asked Esther out at least 4-5 times before she accepted a date. My mother had told me that she had no intent on getting married and wanted to focus on her Nursing career.

Finally, Lamar got a date with Esther which was to be on a Sunday night in October of 1941, but they ended up going out for a malt at Miller's ice cream shop on the Friday before when Esther got off her shift at the hospital. Then on that Sunday, they went out for dinner and a movie.

Shortly after their first date, Lamar sent Esther a dozen red roses followed by another dozen pink roses. Soon after a 3 pound box of Martha Washington chocolates arrived.

Being so enthralled with Esther, Lamar asked her to marry him in December of 1941, within two months of their first date and gave her a peach brocade silk robe for Christmas. Esther, in turn, gave Lamar a book. Esther told Lamar that someday she would marry him, but not yet.

In March of 1942, Lamar went to a fine jewelry store in downtown Fort Wayne named Koerber Jewelers and asked them to "plant" various diamond rings in the store window so he could pick out an engagement ring for Esther, which they did. Later that evening, Lamar and Esther were out for a date and just happened to stroll by the window of Koerber Jewelers while the store was closed. Lamar then proceeded to ask Esther what she thought about the various rings in the window display. It turns out that Esther picked out what was to be her engagement ring without even knowing it. I am assuming that the ring was given to Esther on her birthday in March.

In November of 1942 an engagement announcement of the upcoming wedding was in the Fort Wayne News-Sentinel which read:

"Mr and Mrs John Burke of Berne announce the engagement and approaching wedding of their youngest daughter, Esther, to Lamar Shedron, son of Mr and Mrs Paul L. Shedron. The bridal ceremony will be solemnized in Trinity English Lutheran Church on December 12 at 4 o'clock. Dr Paul H. Krauss will officiate. Miss Eileen Stucky and Kendell Guldin will sing, accompanied by Mrs D.A. Rendleman at the console of the organ. ( Several songs were sung and played preceding the marriage ceremony and also during according to the marriage announcement in the paper.)

Miss Burke is a graduate of Geneva High School and the Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing at which hospital she is employed in the surgical department. Mr Shedron was graduated from South Side High School and continued his studies at Indiana University extension. He is a charter member of Kappa Alpha Sigma Fraternity. At the present time, Mr Shedron is employed as a public accountant in the Rockford office of the accounting firm of Lybrand, Ross Bros. and Montgomery. Mr Shedron was formerly associated with the City Utilities in the credit and auditing department.

Esther and Lamar were married at 4 pm on Saturday, December 12th, 1942 at Trinity English Lutheran Church in Fort Wayne. Following the ceremony there was a reception in the library area of the church, followed by a chicken dinner served at the home of Lamar's parents, Lucy and Leroy Shedron.

I remember my mother, Esther, telling me that because it was during the war, her father, John Burke, did not think it was appropriate for her to have a lavish wedding or a floor length wedding gown. Esther instead wore a white botany wool dress with a drop waist and a softly pleated skirt and a matching white wool box hat with a short veil. Esther wore an antique Amethyst necklace and matching earrings and wore a corsage of three white orchids.

Following the wedding, the newlyweds spent one night at the Harrison Hotel in Chicago then went on to Rockford, Illinois where they would make their first home. Lamar returned to work the Monday following the wedding.

Richard Carlson played the piano accompanied by Carol Shedron Bell on the flute while the guests were invited to sing various Christmas carols.

After the carols were sung the children of Esther and Lamar with their spouses decided to liven things up a bit and sang some fun songs to hopefully give Esther and Lamar as well as the guests a few laughs. Because Esther and Lamar favored opera, classical and sacred music, we purposely choose some country music that was appropriate to the occasion but a little over the top for my parents. The country music songs we sang were; "If I had to do it all over again, I'd do it again with you" and "I'm going to love you forever and ever, forever and ever Amen." Mark Dickmeyer, a fine piano player, accompanied while John Shedron played the spoons and Paul "Bud" Shedron played the Tylenol bottle by shaking it around. We were standing in back of our parents singing so we weren't able to see the expressions on their faces but from the response of the guests, I think it was enjoyed by all.

Then the children reminisced about some of our fondest memories which included vacations in the car with no air conditioning and three children in the back seat; Carol, Bud and John in the back and Cathy riding in front with Esther and Lamar. On one trip we took when I (Cathy) was 3 years old to Florida also included our grandmother, Lucy, Lamar's mother, so now on that particular trip, there were 4 people in the back seat....with no air conditioning. (At that time, cars were not air conditioned!) We reminisced about the boys getting haircuts in the kitchen with Lamar's shears, mashed potato fights, hamburgers in the face, mom insisting that Bud had to change his clothes before driving him to the hospital after he fell off his bike and dislocated his shoulder, the skating rinks that Lamar and the boys made in the back yard every winter and the hockey games, which included some broken windows and other escapades on the ice. Sledding down our long sloping driveway across the street (while someone was watching for cars), cherry bomb explosions in the sewer by the boys and their friends, Miracle whip catch in the kitchen between John and Bud and then dropping it and Esther swearing she would never again buy Miracle whip...but she did, John standing on top of the "little garage" (we had two garages) with wooden planks on his arms thinking he was going to jump off and fly (which was instigated by his older brother, Bud and his friends) and Cathy like a damsel in distress telling John not to do it....he did anyway, but didn't fly and thankfully, was not hurt. The list could have gone on and on.

The children toned it down and went on to thank mom and dad for raising us in Christian home and how we all felt blessed to be raised in a home where we didn't hear parents arguing.

We had previously sent out stationary with the invitations to the guests to write any memories they had to share and some of the responses were reminders that Esther and Lamar had a life before children arrived and also how highly they were regarded by their friends.

Two notes, in particular, reminded us that Lamar loved music and grew up singing in choirs as a boy and as an adult at Trinity. At some point as a young man, Lamar learned how to make recordings and make vinyl records as a hobby and he even had a little recording studio in our home that we were supposed to "stay out of." The organist at Trinity, Richard Carlson, wrote a note referring to all the weddings, recitals, church services and concerts at the church Lamar had recorded throughout the years. Apparently, Dick Carlson was applying for a Fulbright scholarship and had asked Lamar to record him playing, so in the fall of 1959 at 11pm in the church, they met and successfully recorded what would become acceptance for a Fulbright scholarship for Dick and which he was thanking Lamar for being a part of that process. Another note was a thank you to Lamar for a recording of a wedding as a gift to the bride and groom 35 years prior. Lamar often was asked to record weddings in the community and would often give them as wedding gifts.

Another note was from someone who was thanking Esther for being such a wonderful friend. The friend noted that she could always count on being able to call or come over to discuss any problem and how Esther's calm and steady assurance would help always help her feel better. There was a remembrance of Pinochle games that they played as a foursome and apparently an account that Lamar had with a Marhoefer which was a meat packing company in Muncie and Jeffersonville, Indiana. Lamar and the friends had to inventory for this company and "couldn't look at cold meat or hotdogs for weeks after."

A note written by a very old friend of Esther's, Ida Sommers, who lived in Berne where Esther grew up. Ida says, "I've known you as far back as I can remember." Ida's farm, according to the note, joined up with the Burke farm and they were next door neighbors. Esther and Ida and Louise sang as a trio and Ida remembers that all their entertainment was music.

Some of our old neighbors on Fleming street where we grew up brought back memories of all the big snows we had and there were no snow blowers back then. They included a few pictures of a bunch of us shoveling some pretty deep snows. Back then, the neighbors would help each other dig out. So it was a big deal when Lamar got his first snowblower.

Another neighbor referred to an apple tree we had in our back yard on Fleming street and how the neighborhood boys would have apple throwing contests. There were two neighbors who would complain if an apple landed in their yard and one of them even threaten to call the Police if the apples were not picked up or fell in their yard again. The neighbors directly behind us had a baseball diamond in their backyard and the neighborhood boys played back there all the time. I remember getting hit by a wiffel ball bat in the nose once when I got in the way!

There were many more notes and cards from family and friends. It was a memorable and happy celebration.
