From Parishes:Meldreth/ British History Online -<http://www.british-history.ac.uk/vch/cambs/vol8/pp83-97>

In 1524 c. 50 people were assessed to the subsidy in Meldreth; 5 on over £10, 10 on between £5 and £10, 26 on between £1 and £5, and c. 10 on under £1. Amongst the more important yeoman families were the Marvells, recorded from the mid 14th century, three of whom were taxed in 1524. (fn. 239) In 1522 two Ely half-yardlands had been held by William and Margaret Marvell, (fn. 240) and in 1557 Anna Marvell died holding c. 105 a. of Topcliffes which descended to her son George (d. 1568), his son Andrew and Andrew's son Edward. (fn. 241) They also held land of Argentines, including Meldreth Court, once known as Marvells, where Andrew Marvell the divine, probably Edward's brother, and father of the poet was born c. 1586. (fn. 242) By 1621 Edward Marvell had acquired a number of separate holdings and in that year Andrew Marvell collected the rents for Topcliffes; in 1618 he had held c. 48 a. of Topcliffes. (fn. 243) In 1647 Andrew, the poet, sold the later Meldreth Court and adjoining land. (fn. 244)

Another name for John was John Marvell Marvel.

General Notes: John was called the second son of John Marvel and he was bound by his father in 1862 to William Jarman until the age of 21: in exchange, Jarman granted the boy 100 acres of land in Accomack Co., part of the tract on which Jarman lived, on "back br anch" (or Back Creek, now Bagwell's Creek). The parents may then have taken up residence on this land: Little Back Creek. It was about half a mile north of Back Creek, and was referred to by Jarman in a 1688 deed as "My Lord Marvell's Back Creek." In 1695 John Jr. traded his 100 acres to Samuel Young for 100 acres of Young's plantation, which John conveyed later the same year to his parents, John and Ann for their lifetime ("the land whereon they now live"). Two months later he sold the same land to William Hudson, then in 1697 executed another deed for the land to Hudson, with clarification: "on which hundred acres of land John Marvell Sr. now dwelleth." (Another deed, of March 5, 1699 (1700), indicates that John Sr. was still living there.) In June 1698 William Jarman made a statement explaining status of the land he had sold to John Marvel jr. in 1682, saying that he was fully satisfied with fulfillment of deed's provisions: so John must have been at least 21 by this time. After this John Jr. was involved in no more deeds. ----- This information is from A Somerset Sample -- compiled and edited by Pauline Manning Batchelder pages 175-176. Burial Notes: Event Description: St Pauls Episcopal Cemetery

General Notes: 20 March 1753

Thomas Marvill executed two deeds of gift, in which he divided his personal propert and his real estate among his family. To sons David, Thomas, and Philip he gave personal effects and livestock and to Job Gastineau (relationship not stated) he gave a mare. David received 100 acres of land "in the middle of the tract". thomas received 100 acres "the back of the tr act", Philip did not get any land. robert Marvil, inexchange for caring for his father for the rest of his life, received the largest portion.

Lewis Gastineau (a schoolmaster and father of Job) was a witness to the two deeds. (Somerset Co. L.R. Book A p.292)

A thought from Nanette Davis - Often you see Robert Marvel described as the youngest son but the Deed of Gift did not say that. In fact, I would say that since he received the biggest portion, he would be more likely to be the oldest son.

According to English Duplicates of Lost Virginia Records, Thomas Marvell owned 1238 acres of land - from Ancestry.com

"Prettyman Marvel married LAVINA ROGERS. She was born 1765 in Sussex County, Delaware, and died 1848 in Gibson Co., IN.

Prettyman Marvel was born January 29, 1763 in Sussex county, Delaware. He was the son of David Marvel and Sarah Comfort Prettyman. He was a young man at the time of the American Revolution and he told of seeing Gen. Washington and his men marching past, and of the privations and suffering of the Continental Army. Prettyman was of small stature and an expert rider of race horses. Prettyman Marvel married Lavina Rogers (daughter of John Rogers and Comfort Prettyman) in 1788.

A son, whom they named John was born to them April 8, 1794. Their second child, Patience, was born in 1796. That same year, the family moved to Green County Georgia. Prettyman found the soil in Georgia to be not as fertile as the Delaware soil. After a few years of very poor returns on his crops and failing health, due to the humid climate, Prettyman and his family felt they needed to leave Georgia. In 1808, with their seven children (John, Patience, Comfort, Prettyman Jr., James, Wiley and Nancy) they began traveling North on horse back and in wagons. They stopped in Livingston county, Kentucky during the summer of 1809. Here Lavina gave birth to their eighth child, Elizabeth. The group crossed Ohio River that autumn and settled near "Old Fort Branch" in Gibson County, Indiana. After settling in Gibson County, Prettyman and Lavina Marvel had another son, George Rogers Marvel. Lavina was 50 years old when he was born. The Prettyman Marvel home was located in Gibson County, about 4 1/2 miles southwest of the present city of Owensville, in Montgomery Township. It was less than a mile northeast of the Black River Schoolhouse and about the same distance southeast of the Antioch church. Prettyman and Lavina Marvel joined the Methodist Church.

In 1850 Lavina died and Prettyman moved into the big house with his son, George Rogers, and family. In 1851 George Rogers decided to buy a large farm in Franklin county, Illinois. The farm was located near the Cave Township. George Rogers took his father, Prettyman, with him to the new home. Prettyman Marvel died on 1 October 1856, at the age of 93 years."

John Marvel, the oldest child of Prettyman and Lavina Marvel, was born in Sussex County, Delaware April 8, 1794. He was a small lad when his parents made the trip to Georgia. In December, 1808, they migrated north, a journey which took eight or nine months, due to the rigors of traveling at the time. Being the oldest son in a pioneer family, he assumed many responsibilities at an early age. In the fall of 1810, when his father returned to Georgia on a business trip, it was his duty to protect the family and provide wild game for food. Southwestern Indiana was a heavily timbered area and each winter was spent clearing trees and undergrowth so more land would be available for cultivation. John Marvel volunteered in the War of 1812 and helped guard the town of Vincennes. In 1818, John Marvel was married to Mary Barr, daughter of John and Nancy Agnes (Hamilton) Barr, whose parents had migrated to Gibson County, Indiana about the same time as the Marvels. Mary (Barr) Marvel was often known as Polly. They were the parents of three children - Nancy, James H., and Lavina, who was born April 4, 1824, Mary (Barr) Marvel died when Lavina was a few months old. On July 19, 1825 John Marvel was married to Elizabeth Williams, daughter of John Williams, and a native of Tennessee. Their children were John, Mary Ann, Andrew Jackson, and Elizabeth Clark Marvel. Elizabeth (Williams) Marvel died in 1843 at their home in Gibson County, Indiana and was buried at Mounts' Station. Since several of his children had moved to Illinois. John Marvel left Indiana in 1865, going to Wabash County, Illinois, near Mt. Carmel, where he also owned land. He died there November 18, 1876 and was buried in the Friendsville Cemetery.

General Notes: Patience was an infant when her parents moved from Delaware to Georgia. Being the oldest daughter, Patience was automatically 'Mother's Helper'. Even though she was only 13 years old when the Prettyman Marvel family immigrated to Indiana Territory, her responsibilities were great. In all pioneer cabins, and the Marvel home was no exception, the fireplace was built along one end of the cabin. This was the heart of the household. The Marvel house was friendly and hospitable and often the gathering place for friends and relatives. A frequent visitor was Robert Montgomery. Robert was a dedicated Presbyterian and had attended the same church in Greensboro, Georgia that the James Knowles family had attended. He came to Indiana Territory sometime earlier than the Marvels and Knowles families and was living with a Mr. Moore, on the Patoka River. When he heard that the Marvel and Knowles families had come to the Territory he moved closer to their cabins, to be near friends. Patience Marvel spoke with a lisp, which was fetching to Robert Montgomery. He watched her going about her many tasks, as the 'oldest daughter'. Her duties included such tasks as spinning, weaving, cooking, tending the kettles that swung from the cranes over the fires. When she would be heaping coals around the dutch oven on the hearth, her cheeks would flush and her eyes would glow from the heat of the fire. Evidently she kindled a fire in the heart of Robert 'Robin' also, because he decided she had to be his help mate and companion. The story of Robert's proposal to Patience is an often repeated story. It is told like this; "One morning he followed the girls, Patience and Comfort, to the milking pen. There he seated himself upon a stump and made himself useful by holding a calf by the ears while Patience milked. As he sat there, he concluded to have this important matter settled, for he suddenly said, 'Patia, will you milk my cows?' Now Patience, like all girls, would have liked more romance in a proposal, and she replied curtly, 'No, Yobin I won't milk your cows!' There was silence for a long time, and Patience thought the matter finished. She considered Robin's good qualities and her heart softened. She said, 'Say that again, Yobin.' He asked, 'Say what?' She answered, 'Say what you said before.' Robin repeated the question and this time Patience answered 'Yes, Yobin, I'll milk your cows.'" Patience was the first of Prettyman and Lavina's nine children to leave the family home. When the Methodist circuit riding preacher came around they were married. Theirs was the first marriage in the Black River Basin of the Indiana Territory. Years later when Patience applied for a military pension, on Robert's service in the War of 1812, she was unable to prove eligibility. Finally, Nathan Knowles, the only living witness to the marriage testified to the marriage. Robert and Patience made their home in Smith Township, Posey county, Indiana. Robert died on 15 April 1846. He was buried, in the family cemetery, on the farm of his son James, near Cynthia, Indiana. Patience then made her home with the youngest son, Thomas, in Gibson county, Indiana. She died in 1883 and was buried at Antioch, Indiana.

Montgomery, Patience Marvel, settled Gibson County 1807-08, previous residence Georgia. (1)

Patience was living with son Samuel and Phoebe Elizabeth Pruitt when they decided to move to Illinois. She did not share the enthusiasm of the young people to move to Illinois, so she moved in with her youngest son, Thomas, in Gibson County, Indiana. She was buried at Antioch in Gibson County. (3)

Robert Montgomery was a soldier in the War of 1812, and in after years when she applied for a pension, she failed until Nathan Knowles, the only living witness to the marriage, testified to the facts. (3)

Patience was the first of the children of Prettyman and Lavina Rogers Marvel to leave the family home. She and Robert Montgomery were married on April 30, 1813, by the Methodist Circuit riding minister, Rev. Benjamin Edge. This was said to be the first marriage in the Black River Basin in the Indiana Territory. (3)

James Marvel, the fifth child of Prettyman and Lavina (Rogers) Marvel, was born in Greene County, Georgia December 10, 1803. His sixth birthday was spent on the way to their new home at Old Fort Branch in the Territory of Indiana. It took the Marvel family about nine months to make the journey from Georgia. Traveling was difficult, as they had to make trails through the wilderness, there were no bridges and few ferries so most streams had to be forded. Life was never dull for the young children of a pioneer family. During the planting season, they were needed to patrol the fields. Wild fowls were multitudinous, and in the migrating season geese, ducks, pigeons and other birds came northward in such dense flocks as to darken the sky. If one of these flocks settled on a field of young grain, it was speedily devoured, leaving only the bare ground. The children used a tool called a "clatter," which was made of seasoned hickory wood. It was notched and as they operated it with a string, it made a great noise or clatter, which scared away wild fowl and small rodents. Since James Marvel was almost twenty-six years of age before he married, it would seem he was just waiting for his chosen one to grow up. Susan Comfort Knowles, known as Comfort, became his bride on July 20, 1829, which was two months before her sixteenth birthday. He had reason to believe she would prove a good helpmate and companion, since she inherited from her parents, David and Nancy (Piper) Knowles, many rare qualities of mind and person. She was especially trained by her mother in all the domestic art so necessary for the wife of a pioneer. It was said that the energy, industry and perseverance of her mother knew no bounds. Comfort's father, David Knowles, was the favorite nephew of Prettyman Marvel. He resembled his uncle Prettyman, both physically and mentally. He felt a deep love and respect for the uncle and obeyed him as a father. Since Prudence (Marvel) Knowles, mother of David, had died before 1796, he had accompanied the Prettyman Marvels to Georgia in 1796 and had chosen to remain in Kentucky in 1809 when the Marvels settled in the Indiana Territory. In 1812, David and Nancy (Piper) Knowles brought their family to Indiana and settled near the Marvels. Thus Comfort (Knowles) Marvel was a great granddaughter of David and Sarah (Prettyman) Marvel, and her husband, James Marvel, was a grandson of David and Sarah (Prettyman) Marvel. James and Comfort (Knowles) Marvel went to housekeeping on the old homestead entered by his father, Prettyman Marvel, and lived there for more than fifty years. They helped largely in the development of southwestern Indiana from a wilderness to a prosperous farming community. James Marvel was a shrewd business man and very industrious. Besides his farm in Gibson County, Indiana, he also owned land in Franklin County, Illinois. James Marvel was a devoted member of the Methodist Church from his early life, and attended revival meetings far and near. He was happy in his faith and very strict in all religious observances. He always had scripture reading and family devotions each night, and prevailed on all within his confines to attend. This was sometimes annoying to the youths who were calling on the young ladies in the home, nevertheless, he was very firm and they could either leave the house or attend the evening worship. Comfort (Knowles) Marvel died May 30, 1883 and was buried in Antioch Cemetery. She was born in Gibson County, Indiana September 28, 1813. After her death, Samuel Orr Marvel sold his farm in Franklin County, Illinois and with his wife Parthena and family returned to the old Marvel homestead in Indiana to care for his father. James Marvel died January 8, 1885 and was buried in Antioch Cemetery beside his wife of more than fifty years. James and Comfort (Knowles) Marvel were the parents of 11 children: 1 -Wiley (1830-1864) was unmarried 2 -Prettyman (1832 -1853) died while visiting relatives and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Waynesville, Illinois. 3 -Matilda Emmaline (1834-?) married George William Fullerton, M.D. and had 3 children: Nancy Louvina, Arusa (male) and Belle Fullerton. 4 -William Knowles (1836-1914) married Margaret Boren and had 2 children; Alvin E. and Manece (female) Marvel. His second marriage was to Josephine McColum and they had 7 children: unnamed daughter, Nonal Mansen (male), Estelle Ida, Miles Munford, William Walter, Alfred Owen and Nellie Mae Marvel. 5 -Nancy Lavina (1839-1886) married Dill Elkins and had 2 children: Louisa and Samuel Elkins. 6 -David (1841-1917) married Sarah E. Barton and had 8 children: Ada E Myrtle M, Welzie Otis, Mary E (died in infancy), Lela D, Ann:sa Versa, Hugh C and Vada F (died at 22 years of age) Marvel. 7 -Eliza Jane (1844-1892) married Harris Cox and had 9 children: James Oscar, Rosetta May, Wiley Marvel, Lizzie Adele, Fanny Comfort, Lemuel Potter, John Lewis, Delmer Emmett (died when 22 yrs. old) and Grover Clyde Cox. 8 -Permelia Elizabeth (1847-1875) married Samuel Wilkins and had no children. 9 -Samuel Orr (1849-?) married Parthena Cumi Bailey and had 8 children: Ola Drodote (male), Mary Minnie, Susan Ethel, James Roscoe, David Byron, Mattie Belle (died at age 13 years), Ralph Bailey and Samuel Lewis Marvel. 10 -James Laughlin (1852-1919) married Florence Wilson and had no children. 11 -John Doss (1855-1880) was unmarried.

James married Comfort Susan Knowles, daughter of David Knowles and Nancy Piper. Comfort was born on 28 Sep 1813 in Kentucky, died on 30 May 1883 in Montgomery, Gibson County, Indiana, at age 69, and was buried in Owensville, Gibson County, Indiana. Another name for Comfort was Comfort Knoles.

Wiley MARVEL was born in Green county, Georgia, April 4, 1806, and died at his home in DeWitt county, Illinois, July 27, 1883. At the age of three years his parents emigrated to the (then) Territory of Indiana, and settled in what is now Gibson county. Here he grew to manhood, and at the age of fifteen years was converted to Christ, at Shiloh camp ground, on the old Patoka circuit. He readily made up his mind and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for sixty-two years was a faithful and trustworthy member. He served the church in an official capacity for more than fifty years as trustee, steward and leader. His voice all along these years was heard in the quarterly conference; his counsel was heeded and often sought. He was always ready to serve the church in whatever capacity he was called. He was not only always ready with his presence, counsel and money, dividing his living with the preacher, and giving liberally and cheerfully for building churches and parsonages, and the various benevolences of the church. He was not the man to turn away the suffering and needy at any time. Many a poor man has found a good friend in Bro. Marvel. He removed to DeWitt county, Ills., and settled on the present homestead in March, 1853. In January, 1881, he had a severe attack of lung fever, from which he never fully recovered. For nearly two weeks he has been suffering terribly, at times so intensely that persons would leave the room rather than witness his agonies. But the savior came to his rescue and sustained him to the end. He would not murmur nor complain, but bore it all with marked Christian patience and fortitude, giving glory to God and His holy name.

The subject of this sketch is descended from pioneer stock. His grandfather, William Brown, a native of Maryland having married Patience Marvel, of Delaware, settled in the Ohio Valley in the year 1773, in April, 1776, alarmed for the safety of his family, in that exposed country where the savages were being incited by emissaries of Great Britain to wage a war of extermination against white settlers, he left his cabin in the wilderness and returned with his family in Delaware; entered the Continental army and served during the War to Independence, and in 1785 returned to Western Virginia and settled in what is now Brooke county, and where he was a prominent man; served as a member of the County Court, was the Sheriff of the county, and for many years was a member of the Legislature. Here Joseph Brown, the father of our subject was born and reared. He married Rachel Hood, a native of Baltimore County, Maryland, and like his father chose the occupation of farming, and lived a long an honorable and useful, and died, as he had lived, triumphing in the glad promises of the Christian's faith, in July 1882, having passed the ninetyeth year of his age. He is buried beside his

Brown Township

Quite an excitement was created by the finding in an out of the way place on the farm of Robert Marvel, a fleabitten grey horse, which had evidently been bled to death and afterwards hid away among logs, woods, etc. Whose horse it is, who killed it and what for, are questions the people are asking. Evidently there is something wrong.

Must be a Terrible Swearer

Special to the Sentinel: Greencastle, Ind. May 10

The case of George W. Hough vs. Robert Marvel, on change of venue from Hendricks county, is occupying the attention of our Court this week. Considerable interest is being manifested in the trial, and a large number of witnesses are in attendance. The charge is slander, and the following language is upon what the charge is based. The defendant a farmer, residing in Hendricks, County, and in the month of July last his house was broken open in the night time. He was gagged, and the sum of $635 was taken from him, and in the month of September last, in company with other persons, said: "George Hough, gagged me; Jim Cartson, Bill Tolin, and Ed Irishman came to my house and gagged me and took my money." hereby intending to charge the plaintiff with the crime of larceny. The firm of Herod & Winter, of Indianapolis, are for the defendant, while Gladly & Blake, of Danville, and Smiley & Neff, of Greencastle, are for plaintiff.

Prominent Indianians Arrested for Murder and Robbery
Special to the Commercial Gazette

Indianapolis, Ind. March 29 -- In July, three years ago, the house of Robert Marvel, at Traders' Point, seven miles north of this city, was robbed. His brother-in-law was thrown from a window, on a stone pile, and died from the effects. Marvel's wife never recovered from the night's shock and died. Pinkerton's detectives have been working on the case for several months, and to-day the Sheriff of this county went out with a posse and arrested John R. Wilson, Tilman Wilson, and John Caldwell, all prominent citizens of that section, and brought them to jail here tonight. Others are implicated.

From Indianapolis dated July 29, 1884

Tried for an Old Affair

John R. Wilson, Samuel Shambaugh, John Caldwell and Sylvester Wilson, indicted in Hendricks county, for bucking, gagging and robbing Robert Marvel and wife of $600, July 25, 1881, are on trial before Judge Norton on a change of venue. It is intimated that the state has not much of a case. Marvel's home was entered after nightfall, and the money taken by force, and the robbery in its various phases, has been agitating Traders' Point and vicinity ever since. Mr. Marvel at one time accused his son-in-law George Hough, with heading the raid, and Hough sued him for slander. The case went to Putnam county on a change of venue, and the jury returned for defendant. The state, in the present trial, is represented by Hadley, Hogate & Blake, and the defense by Billy Herrod.

A MARVELOUS OCTOGENERIAN.

Notwithstanding his Age He lives After Fasting Forty-Seven Days.

Indianapolis, July 31 - Robert Marvel, the Pike township octogenarian, whose peculiar case is attracting much attention from physicians, turned the forty-seventh day of his fast yesterday and appears to be as strong as a week ago. Within the past two days, however, his loss of flesh has been more perceptible than any week preceding, his cheeks being very much sunken and his eyes appearing to fall deeper into their sockets. Monday and yesterday he drank considerable water, and possibly a pint of milk, but has taken no solid food.

He sat up in bed several times yesterday, but was evidently fatigued by the effort. He appears more petulant with each day, and will not receive attention from any one but his granddaughter. Several physicians visited him yesterday, and made a thorough examination of his throat, but could not find anything except what appeared to be a contraction of the muscles. The weight of opinion was that the paralysis has affected the muscles at the base of the tongue and the alimentary canal only.

Six weeks or so ago Mr. Marvel became apparently paralyzed in his throat and unable to swallow, and has remained in that condition since, except that he became able a short time since to swallow water or milk.

Xenia Daily Gazette and Torchlight - Wednesday Evening August 21, 1889 page 1

INDIANAPOLIS, August 20.- Robert Marvel, after fasting sixty-seven days, died this morning at 7 o'clock. His case is so extraordinary that it has attracted the attention not only of the curious public, but of the medical fraternity far and near. He was 85 years Old.

On June 13 Mr. Marvel ate his last square meal. For thirty-six days he took absolutely nothing into his stomach. On the thirty-eighth he bit off a piece of pie, but did not eat it. On the thirty-ninth day he drank a small quantity of milk, and at irregular periods he has continued to do so. All told, he has not drunk to exceed one gallon of milk in the sixty-seven days that have elapsed since he began to fast.

The effect of this abstinence is such as would be expected. The faster has reduced himself to a "living Shadow". The case is so far beyond the ordinary that incredulity has been excited. But there is no occasion for this, as Dr. George Hasty, a well known physician of this city, has regularly attended him. The great difficulty in treating him has been his determination to resist all proffered aid. After fasting a full month, he one day arose from his bed and, seizing a pan of water that stood near, drank some of it off. After that milk and water were left near him, and occasionally he would drink a little. During the last week Marvel has been bedfast, except at times when he would spring up and wander about the house and porch. Sores came upon him by reason of his long confinement, and evidently Marvel has not only suffered long, but severely, though every thing possible was done to relieve him.

His fast is the longest on record, so far as known-. The most prominent case of voluntary fasting-was Tarmer's. It will be recalled that he ate nothing and drank only water during forty-five days.

The tale of Robert Marvel was carried across the United States. On August 21, 1899 the Philadelphia Inquirer retold the story.

Marvel lived with his relatives in Pike township, seven miles from the city. His trouble began with apoplexy and paralysis.

Marvel was born in Sussex county, Delaware, October 7, 1805. When young he was a sailor for seven years. He came West in 1835. He lived in his later years with his widowed daughter, Mrs. Jones.

Robert Marvel held two 40 acres patents of land in Brown Township, Indiana. 1) Sec 29 NWNW received on 10/28/1835 2) Sect 29 NENW received on 3/20/1837.

Published in The Deseret Weekly (published by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints) 1891. Page 840. Chronology for 1889 - Tues. 20, 1889 ... Robert Marvel died in Indiana after fasting 67 days; the longest fast on record.

A VERITABLE LIVING SKELETON.
An Octogenarian Has Already Fasted Sixtyseven Days.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19, - Robert Marvel, the octogenarian of Pike township, pass the sixtyseventh day of his fast yesterday and is still alive. During the past week, the hard, bony substance which appeared in his veins when he was first attacked by paralysis has increased and is now felt at intervals of two or three inches all over his body. He is very much emaciated and appears to be a veritable living skeleton. He has not spoken a word since June 14 and during the

Burial Notes: Event Description: Union Cemetery

General Notes: Nancy Marvel, third child of Prettyman, Jr. and Rebecca Barr Marvel, was born November 4, 1827. Her birth was an event in the lives of the pioneers, as she was the first white child to be born in the newly settled Dewitt County, Illinois. Being the oldest daughter in a pioneer family, Nancy learned to help her mother in household tasks at an early age. She was the first of the Marvel children to marry. On December 12, 1844, at 17 years of age, she married William Teal, son of Adam and Hannah Gudgel Teal. His parents were from Pennsylvania, but had migrated to Indiana, where their son, William, was born Aug 18, 1818. William Teal left Indiana in 1843, riding the distance of 200 miles on horseback in the company of a friend, John Mason Armstrong. Mr. Armstrong settle near Stanford, McLean County, IL, but William Teal came to Dewitt County, where he married Nancy Marvel the following year. William and Nancy Teal spent the next two years at the Marvel household, while he farmed rented land in the area. For the following 8 years, they purchased and sold farm lands near Waynesville. In 1854, they bought 160 acres in section 19, Barnett Township, Dewitt County, IL. This land was four and one half miles south of Waynesville and is still owned by a grandson, Ray Holt Teal (this book written in 1968). On this farm, their three sons grew to manhood. William and Nancy Teal celebrated their golden wedding on December 12, 1894. William Teal died at the family home November 1, 1897. Nancy Teal was noted for her remarkable memory and was interviewed by many authors who wrote histories of DeWitt County and the early residents. At an early age she united with the Waynesville Methodist Episcopal Church, which her parents had been instrumental in establishing. Later she and her family joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Midland City, a village about three miles southwest of their home. Nancy Teal was always ready to be of assistance to neighbors and friends. Someone said the winter was never too cold, the snow and mud too deep, to keep Aunt Nancy from the homes of the needy and the bedsides of the suffering. Nancy Teal continued to live on the farm until March, 1913. She had gone to visit Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Marvel and while there she had fallen. Due to the infirmities of her age she did not recover from the effects of the fall. She died May 17, 1913 at the age of 85 years. Her funeral service was at the Presbyterian Church in Waynesville. William and Nancy Teal were buried in Union Cemetery, Waynesville, IL. srogers1967added this on 16 Jul 2010

Item 7 - Prettyman Marvel, the seventh child of Prettyman and Rebecca (Barr) Marvel, was born March 31, 1832, on the Marvel homestead near Waynesville, Ill. In the year 1853 he married Permelia Malone, daughter of Henry and Evaline (Gambrel) Malo ne. They lived southeast of Waynesville, their farm being about one-quarter of a mile distant from the home of his eldest brother, John Shrader Marvel. In 1890 he left Illinois, going to Nebraska where he farmed in Platte and Nance Counties. Pe rmelia (Malone) Marvel died near Palmer, Neb., November 16, 1897. She was born in Indiana, December 27, 1840. Prettyman Marvel died in Los Angels, California, March 7, 1913. During his last sickness he was tenderly cared for by his daughter, Dr . Sarah E. Morse.

At the time of the gold discovery at Pikes Peak, Colorado, Prettyman Marvel, as did many others, had roseate dreams of acquiring a fortune by digging gold from the earth, and concluded to meake the great venture of crossing the plains. There wa s a party of six with fiveyoke of oxen, and wagons; they outfitted at St. Joe, Mo., and went by the way of old Ft. Kearney in Nebraska on the Platte River. They arrived at their destination, but the gold proved elusive and when the arty returned home in the fall, the only treasure they brought back was a small vial of the precious metal, about enough to make a finger ring, which was inpossession of Richard Botkin. All brought back, however, buffalo robes obtained by trading with the In dians, also many buffalo calf skins, tanned and ornamented by the indians, with beads and paint. Prettyman Marvel had his made into a coat, which proving to be too small, he later sold to Hugh Swan. Prettyman and Permelia (Malone) Marvel had ele ven children.

Prettyman married Pamelia E Malone, daughter of William Andrew J Malone and Evalina Gambrel. Pamelia was born on 27 Dec 1840 in Gibson County, Indiana, died on 22 Oct 1898 in Palmer, Merrick County, Nebraska, at age 57, and was buried on 23 Oct 1898 in Nance County, Nebraska. ## PROMINENT FARMER GONE TO REST.

One of County's Best Known Men Dies suddenly at His Home in Waynesville - Funeral Held Yesterday.

In the early afternoon of his industrious life; before the fall of shadows noted the threshold of old age; in the midst of a circle of sons and grandchildren, who loved and honored him, the shock of death came to Wiley MARVEL, of Waynesville, July 2. Aside from thinness of flesh he had no serious premonitions of any malady. He was active in business and went about his regular duties until a few hours before his death. He was seized with paralysis of the organs of the throat which soon rendered voice or even swallowing impossible. Paralysis may attack any branch of nerves radiating from the brain centers, but scarcely these organs. He was left practically conscious and doubtless suffered much, but mercifully not long.

Mr. Marvel, belonging to one of the oldest families in DeWitt county and being related to several of the oldest families of Waynesville and vicinity was one of the widely known citizens of the county. In the spheres of farmer, stock raiser, trader and speculator, he was eminently successful, being one of the noble examples of a self-made man in every particular. He was born near Waynesville 67 years ago. When facilities for education were limited and his means were slender, he began the battle of life on the ground of his childhood, never leaving these scenes and only moving household goods twice during the time. Endowed with pluck, energy and good health he fought a most successful battle, dying amid the harvest of his efforts. Surrounded with abundance of the world's goods, his life is a splendid example of what duty, industry and courage brings to the man that practices them.

On August 25, 1864, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth M. WILLIAMS, who like him was born and reared near Waynesville, and who died a member of the Christian church at Waynesville, Sept. 10, 1894.

He was a most public-spirited man, feeling great zeal in all enterprises of the community. Denied the advantages of a good education, he was determined that his and his neighbors' children should have such advantages. He was very largely instrumental in the establishing of the Waynesville academy which has done so much for DeWitt and other counties in providing full courses of instruction. While a firm believer in religion he allowed his large charities and donations to speak more for his sincerity than membership in the church. His affiliations were with the Christian church people from the altar of which his remains were carried to their last rest.

Through the liberality and untiring work of Mr. Marvel and J. P. STRANGE in the work of soliciting, the erection of the Christian church was made possible. From out the portals of this church have gone two young men who have been signally successful in calling men and women to the folds of the church. Rev. S. E. FISHER, of Fisher, Ill., and Rev. J. A. BARNETT, of Pekin, Ill., whose very successful work at Hallsville last winter is well remembered. Thus his influence for good and the saving of souls, like the pebble cast in the ocean, will go on widening and deepening as long as time shall last. The church at Waynesville now has a pastor who will devote his entire time to the work, and the congregation is large and growing, made so largely by Mr. Marvel's aid.

Mr. Marvel was a man of most tenacious convictions. He loved a friend when one was so proven and felt keenly chagrined at any evidence of ingratitude. No neighbor could be more generous and hundreds will remember and miss the favors that sprang from his kindness of heart. He was jovial with his friends and at the same time intensely sincere in his convictions, never swerving an inch from what he thought was right. In politics he was a life-long Democrat and was ever ready with his counsels and aid for the advance of its principles.

Wiley Marvel was the son of Prettyman and Rebecca MARVEL, who settled in Waynesville in 1825 and passed away in early days. Of the original family there are left three sisters and two brothers, of these is Mrs. Nancy TEAL, who was the first white child born in DeWitt county; Mrs. Mary GAMBREL and Mrs. Rebecca LOHRS. The brothers, Geo. and Prettyman, live in Nebraska. Mrs. Marvel died in 1894. The sons and daughters living are Mrs. Ida M., wife of Dr. STARKEY; Mrs. Addie O. SWAN; and Otis C., all of Waynesville; Geo. B., attorney of Clinton; Dr. Luther M. MARVEL, Deland; Mrs. Cora H. BLACK, of Waynesville; Dr. W. J. MARVEL, Chicago; Chas. W., Waynesville; and Mrs. Verne B. STEVENS, Chicago.

Funeral services were held in the Christian church at Waynesville on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. F. Smith, assisted by Rev. Roush of the Methodist church and Rev. Johnson, of the Presbyterian church. Most appropriately the pastor chose for his text, Luke 7:5, For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue, saying, "Death comes an unbidden guest to every board, and at his spectral bidding some loved one goes forth to his mysterious home.

Faith, hope and time may teach resignation unto hearts made desolate by his coming, but they can never fill the vacancy therein, when the one we loved is gone.

In his death the children have lost a kind father, the church a warm friend and the community one of the most public-spirited citizens."

The pall bearers were J. P. Strange, Sam Martin, Braxton Marvel, George Smith, William Booth, Geo. Trigg, E. L. Huffman, and J. F. Dix. Miss Edith Marvel presided at the organ and Misses Rose Milburn and Mary Smith and Messers. J. E. Bell and Math ew Cornell composed the quartet that furnished the music. A large concourse of those who knew and loved Mr. Marvel in life gathered to pay the last tribute on earth, many being unable to gain admission to the church. The interment was made at th e Union cemetery west of Waynesville.

Death Notes: Event Description: Age: 75

General Notes: From the Baldwin Ledger July 14, 1911. Baldwin City, Kansas Prettyman Marvel was born in Gibson County, Indiana, December 29, 1835, and died at his home in Baldwin, Kansas, Monday evening, July 10, 1911, aged 75 years, 7 months, 12 days. He was reared on a farm in what was then a frontier community, spent two years in Asbury, (now DePauw) University at Green Castle, Indiana, and at the age of 17 he removed with his parents to DeWitt County, Illinois, where most of the years of his early manhood were spent. In 1871 he came to Kansas, settling in Pottawatomie County, near Meyers Valley. In 1889 he came to Baldwin, the primary purpose of his coming being to educate his children. He was twice married, the first time in 1860 to Miss Ellen J. Kenton, a near relative of Simon Kenton, the noted pioneer and scout. Two children were born to them, Mary E., now Mrs. Otto Gier of Mountain View, MO., and Ulysses Grant, now of Ft. Worth, Tex. He was married the second time in 1867 to Miss Mary J. Jones of Midland City, Ill. Six daughters and one son were born to them. Mrs. Marvel died in March, 1906. One of the daughters, Mrs. C.B. Dalton, died last September. The other children all survive their father. For the past ten years Mr. Marvel had been in failing health and had suffered great bodily weakness, though until within the last few weeks his mental faculties remained unimpaired, and, seemed in many respects even to grow clearer with advancing age. He was a life-long Methodist, his father being a pioneer Methodist class leader. He united with the church at the age of fourteen years and through a long life has been faithful to the interest of the church and an earnest seeker after the Christian truth. He loved righteousness and hated iniquity. During the years of his illness his mind has dwelt much on the things of the spirit. As he became conscious of the approaching dissolution his spirit was radiant and in the midst of the suffering there was present the supreme joy of the presence of God and the earnest expectation of his immortality. "I enrolled a long time ago," he said toward the last, "and I've tried to do good work. I failed sometimes in the tests, but I did the work over and now I've about finished the course. I think I am ready to graduate, but O, I'll be so glad when I get my diploma." He has it now. Sherbear added this on 4 Aug 2008

"George Washington Marvel, a son of Wiley Marvel and Charity Fugat Clark, was born on November 20, 1844 in Gibson County, Indiana. He died in September 1938 in Boyd, Oregon. George was eight years old when his parents moved to De Witt county, Illinois. His first farm work was dropping corn by hand and cultivating it with "one old horse and a shovel plow." On July 4, 1859 he and his younger brother Braxton traveled to Atlanta, Illinois to hear Abraham Lincoln. This adventure was a reward from their father Wiley for having worked hard laying by the corn. After a three hour, eleven mile, horseback ride they arrived at high noon. The each had been rewarded with ten cents for food so for lunch they purchased two glasses cider for five cents and as much gingerbread as they could eat for the another five cents. While they were eating Lincoln and Sylvester Strawn (president of the celebration) came by and Lincoln asked how the cider and gingerbread was. George suggested that they join he and Braxton and the offer was accepted. Before leaving for home, they spent the other ten cents for more cider and gingerbread. Later in life George remarked "I have often wondered just why Mr. Lincoln noticed us two awkward country boys, with our plain clothes and hair reaching down to our shoulders." George worked on his fathers farm until he was twenty-one years of age. In March of 1872, he and Samantha moved to Pottawatomie County, Kansas, whither his brother Prentiss had gone the year before. Here he engaged in general farming and stock raising. In January of 1887 he, Mary Frances and family moved to Gilliam County, Oregon, settling on a homestead eleven miles south of Arlington, Oregon. Here they experienced many reverses and in the spring of 1893 they moved to a creek ranch near Olex, Oregon. Here they had abundant water for irrigation, and the bottom lands were devoted to alfalfa, fruit and gardening, while their stock grazed the uplands. Here they prospered, and made their home until the children were grown and self-sustaining. The following the death of Mary Frances, George sold his interest in the farm to his son Charles. In 1925, he, Nancy Jane and his two youngest daughters, who were teachers, moved to Monmouth, Oregon. From there they moved to Dufur, Oregon and then, after getting a contract to carry the mail, they moved to Boyd, Oregon. George was a Republican and attended the Methodist Church. George and Nancy Jane (6133422) attended the Marvel reunion held on August 26, 1923 at South Park, Peoria, Illinois. January 26, 1895 - Omaha World Herald page 4

"Minneapolis Tribune: Joshua Marvel, who has just been inaugurated governor of Delaware, is one of the most successful business men and shrewdest investors in the state, and yet, it is stated, he is totally unable to read or write. He cannot even sign his name, and has secured the services of a leading lawyer as his secretary. This is one of the most remarkable instances on record of a wholly uneducated man attaining great business and political success. It is a proof that native ability can rise above the disabilities of circumstances or environment"

GOVERNOR MARVEL BETTER

Laurel, Del.m March 13 - The condition of Governor Marvel, who was reported yesterday to be seriously ill of heart disease and dropsy, is greatly improved today. His only brother died yesterday of paralysis. The Governor's favorite son and partner is dangerously ill of pneumonia and his nephew and secretary is convalescing from recent illness. The family affliction, coupled with the death of his friend, Benjamin Fooks, recently, has greatly undermined the frail constitution of the Governor, but he is not thought to be in any immediate danger.

GOVERNOR MARVIL DEAD

The End Came Last Night After a Lingerin g Illness of Several Weeks

Laurel, Del., April 8 - Governor Joshua H. Marvil died at 9:15 o'clock to-night after a lingering illness lasting several weeks. Death resulted from a complication of erysipelas, Bright's disease, asthma, heart disease and dropsy. His death had been expected since Friday night and doctors gave up all hopes of saving his life then. This morning he rallied and the physicians thought that if he continued to improve there was a bare chance of saving his life, but at 6 o'clock he became unconscious and remained in this condition until the end came.

Governor Marvil was elected last November and was inaugurated in January. His death will make a big change in the politics of Delaware. The State has no Lieutenant-Governor and the Constitution provides that in the event of the death of the Governor the Speaker of the State Senate shall act as Governor. Therefore William N. Watson, a Democrat, will become Governor, and take the place of Mr. Marvil, who was a Republican. If the Governor had lived he would have appointed men to fill about forty State and county offices, but now these will be filled, by Democrats.

Joshua Hopkins Marvil was born in Little Creek Hundred, Sussex county, September 3, 1825. His family was originally of English descent on the paternal and French on the maternal side. He was the son of Joseph Marvil, a farmer, who was drowned in 1834, leaving a widow and six children, none grown. Joshua was the fourth child. He was obliged to work and found the farm labor so pressing that he was only able to attend school for a small portion of the school year. He remained with his mother until 21 years of age and then hired a man to take his place while he followed the water for a year. For seven years thereafter the future Governor was engaged in shipbuilding, at which calling he demonstrated rare mechanical ability, and in a short time was made foreman of the yard in which he was employed. When but 28 years of age Marvil established a shop for the manufacture of agricultural implements and carried it on until 1865. In 1870 he invented a machine for manufacturing berry baskets and by hand power made 25,000 in that year. The next year steam being introduced he turned out 600,000 baskets, besides crates to contain the same. The business gradually grew until the establishment now makes 2,000,000 baskets every year. Besides other boxes for the transportation of fruits. In 1840 Mr. Marvil married Miss Sarah Ann Sirman, of Sussex county. He has three sons, two of whom were associates with him in business. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, always having taken a great interest in its work. The Governor had been for years afflicted with heart and kidney trouble and had been unable to attend to his duties since March 1, except at irregular periods. He had been prominent in Delaware Republican politics for years, but never was a candidate for office until he was nominated for Governor.

Born in Laurel, Sussex County, Delaware on September 3, 1825, son of Joseph, a farmer; brother of five others; a Methodist-Episcopalian. Married to Sarah Ann Sirman in 1849; father of three sons. Received a limited education. Worked on the family farm until coming of age, then went to sea for one year, and engaged in shipbuilding for seven years. Operated a shop for the manufacture of agricultural implements from 1853 to 1865. In 1870 he invented a machine that made peach and berry baskets. After adding steam power to his plant, his business flourished and became the most important industrial plant in Sussex County. Marvil never held public office before running for governor. On November 6, 1894, Joshua Hopkins Marvil was elected Governor of Delaware, by defeating Ebe W. Tunnell, a Democrat, by a vote of 19880 to 18659. A Republican, Governor Marvil took the oath of office on January 15, 1895. However, his term of service was cut short by his unexpected death on April 8, 1895. Slater, 15 year s old, an inmate at the home. Marvel pleaded not guilty and later was rekeased under bond of $1000. The date of the hearing has not been fixed.

Girls Escape Failed.

The arrest of Marvel is the result of charges made by the Slater girl to the matron in the Washington (Ind.) jail, following the arrest of the girl and her companion, Sallie Hendrickson, 15 years old, at Washington where they were taken from a tra in last Tuesday night. The girls made a sensational escape from the Orphans' Home last Monday by jumping from the veranda roof and eluding the matron. The fact that they had money to pay for their carfare was the first circumstance that caused s uspicion that someone was aiding them in their escape. The Slater girl asserts that Marvel attacked her and, becoming frightened, later urged her and her companion to leave the home, giving them money to go away.

Early Life ... As young man, Marvil went to sea for a while and returned to work in shipbuilding. At the age 28, in 1853, he began to manufacture farm equipment. having a certain mechanical genius, he was able to imagine profitable new techologi es. With the growth of the peach orchards, he started the Marvil Package Company, a basket and crate manufacturing business in Laurel. For a time, it was said to have been the largest industrial plant in the area, producing two million fruit bas kets and crates annually. He was also the publisher of Laurel's first newspaper, the "Gazette", which he started in 1889.
