Sold $20 In A Rag Bag.

One of Fulton county's model citizens is Reuben Steininger, who lives peacefully and comfortably on his farm near Germany ford, on the Tippecanoe. Reuben is not a capitalist but he always kees a small reserve fund on hand and he keeps it out of r each of pilferers. Last week he had twenty dollars in currency and as he didn't care to carry it with him he did it at the bottom of a rag bag. While he was out about the farm a rag buyer came along and purchased the contents of the rag bag. On e member of the family carried the bag out and dumped the contents into the rag wagon when a neatly wrapped package fell out from the bottom of the bag. It was unwrapped and the contents was Mr. Steininger's twenty dollars which was duly returned to him.

Written by Clarence L. Hiatt on May 17, 1993

" Reuben and Sophia Steininger were born in the mountains of eastern Pennsylvania near the Susquehanna River at a small town of Sunbury and near Selinsgrove. Prior to his marriage to Sophia Waltrs, he was married and had a son Charles Steininger. after her death he then married Sophia. He and Sophia emigrated to Indiana with their 2 oldest sons. Henry William (Heinrich Wilhelm) and Howard. Reubens parents were born in Southern Germany. The remainder of rieben and Sophia's children were born in Indiana. About 7 1/2 miles Northwest of Rochester, Rueben was a farmer and also a carpenter.

The house and barn, which he built, are still standing and in good repair today. he also was instrumental in building a church (South Germany) which no longer stands. A cemetery where most of the Steininger's were interred, marks the place where the church stood.

Coming from Germany, they naturally spoke German and also taught it to all of their children and in turn was taught to part of their grandchildren. I consider myself very fortunate as the only one left that can speak (Dutch) German. (signed - Clarence L. Hiatt)"

" Reuben Steininger was born in Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania in the year of 1831. His marriage was to Sophia Walters to which were born 6 children - 5 sons and 1 daughter who was the youngest. There was one son who was not born to Sophia but was t he oldest of the six children of reuben. The children follow in age sequence that they were born. - Charles Steininger 1) Henry - Carpenter 2) Howard - Preacher/Farmer 3) George - Preacher 4) Franklin - Farmer 5) Milo Irvin - Farmer 6) Catherin e Luella

They traveled to Indiana by wagon drawn by horses. Charles Steininger did not accompany them. At the time of their move the two eldest boys Henry and Howard accompanied them. The remainder of the children, namely, George, Frank, Milo and Lulu were born in Indiana. They settled in Fulton County, Richland Township and on the Tippecanoe River all of which were 7 miles Northwest of Rochester and 5 miles east of Leiters Ford in Aubbeenaubbe Township."

According to the Evening Sentinel - 1903

Burial Notes: Event Description: Naperville Cemetery

General Notes: Obituary from Find A Grave for Catherine Butts

Catherine Butts, nee Steininger, was born in Lehigh County, Pa., near Allentown, September 20th, 1836. When nearly nine years of age she came west with her parents, who settled in DuPage County, not far from the home in which she died. She has been a resident of this county ever since.

February 10th, 1863, she was joined in holy matrimony with George Butts. Seven children were born to them, one of whom died in infancy.

She fell asleep in Jesus on Thursday, Feb. 4th, 1909, after an illness of eleven weeks, at the age of seventy-two years, four months and fifteen days. She leaves four sons and two daughters; Milton and Minnie (Mrs. J. F. Miller) reside in Naperville, Walter, Fred, John and Emma are at home, also five grandchildren and two sisters, Miss Steininger and Mrs. Bollensen, and many relatives and friends.

Forty-three years ago she was converted to God. She was a true wife, a loving mother, a true friend and a loyal member of Salem Church, and was faithful in the discharge of all her duties.

She will be greatly missed in her home. May God's gracious spirit comfort the sorrowing hearts and grant them all a blessed reunion in Heaven.

The funeral services were held from the Salem Church Sunday, Feb. 7th. A large concourse of relatives and friends filled the church to pay the last tribute of respect to a worthy woman.

The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. A. Fuessle, who preached in German, after which Rev. John Divan spoke in English. Her remains were laid away in Naperville Cemetery at the side of her husband to await the resurrection morning.

Wabash Plain Dealer:

Rev. Steininger, a minister of the Evangelical denomination, whose assignment is to Oak Park and Compton Hill, was caught by Fish Warden Sala, of Vincennes, on Lake Wawasee, Monday night, engaged in illegal fishing. Sala has been at the lake several days disguised as a farm hand and lay in wait for violators of the law. The boat containing the minister pushed off the shore and Sala and his assistants gave chase in another and rounded the offenders to with a rifle shot. Their boat contained a new two-hundred foot seine. Steininger promised to appear in court when wanted and was release. He is an able man and widely known in northern Indiana church circles.

... Rev. H. Steinger, pastor of the Evangelical church at Logansport and formerly pastor in this city, was slightly injured in a thrilling runaway Monday. The reverend gentleman was driving down a steep incline in a light road wagon. The horse took fright and started to run. The wagon swinging from side to side struck a tree in front of Tete Nave's grocery and the horse in his fury to get free, overturned the buggy and spilled the minister into the street. Rev. Steinger was not much hurt, only sustaining a few bruises.

Thursday, July 3, 1919

Details of the horrible accident which resulted in the death of Howard STEININGER, 56, at Beebee, Ark., were related Thursday by Chauncey HIATT and Forest STEININGER, who returned Wednesday evening with the body, via Logansport.

It appears that Steinger took a team to his barn, which was some distance from the house, about noon on Saturday, June 28. When he did not appear in the evening, a search was made and his almost lifelike and unrecognizable body was found in a mule's stall, under the animal's feet. One leg was broken in two places, one ear was off, several ribs were broken, practically all of his clothes were torn off, and his body was a mass of cuts and bruises. He lived until Sunday morning.

Besides the widow, a son and two daughters in Redlands, Calif., there survive a daughter, Mrs. Charles FISHER, of Beebee, who with her husband, returned with the body; two sons, Irvin [STEININGER], of Auburn, and Forest [STEININGER], of near Rochester; a sister, Mrs. Chauncey HIATT, and two brothers, Henry [STEININGER] and Milo [STEININGER], all of near Rochester, and a brother, Frank [STEININGER], of Copemish, Mich.

General Notes: Obituary from The Rochester Sentinel (Rochester, Fulton County, Indiana) Wednesday, January 9, 1889.

DIED - Rev. Geo. Calvin STEININGER died January 2d, 1889, aged 24 years and 3 days. Deceased was born in Snyder county, Pennsylvania, and when yet an infant, his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Ruben STEININGER emigrated to Michigan. After a brief residence of one year in that state, they moved to Indiana, locating where they now reside in Richland township, Fulton County.

Aside from the one term of school at the Valparaiso Normal, deceased was obliged to acquire his education preparatory to the ministry, though diligence and hard study at home.

Three years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Lizzie WEBB, of Richland township, who, with a one year old child survives.

For 12 months while in charge of the Akron mission, deceased and family were residents of Rochester. Subsequently he was assigned to a new field of labor at Germantown, Wayne county, Indiana, where after an illness of but 40 hours, caused from neuralgia of the stomach and bowels, he expired in peace with his God.

The remains were brought back to the old homestead, to be sheltered once more, and for the last time under the parental roof. January 4th the body was gently laid away at the Germany church cemetery in the presence of a large gathering of weeping and sympathizing friends. Prior to the burial, Rev. OAKES, Presiding Elder, delivered an able funeral sermon, assisted by Res. Sam'l. PLANTZ, James Wales and Philip BUEHLER.

Rev. Geo. C. Steininger, deceased, was a faithful worker and true follower of his Divine Master. In shouldering the cross of his Savior, and dedicating his life to the cause of christianity, he did not relinquish the superior manhood possessed in him --to use his own judgment and uninfluenced by others in following the dictates of his own honest heart in things pertaining to secular affairs. With a heart free from prejudice, he was capable of grasping the sublime theory of our free institutions, that the safety and perpetuity of the same can only be assured through the complete separation of church and state. For his many virtues, purity of character and his honesty and sincerity in all things, deceased had many friends and admirers among every sect and creed.

George married Sarah Elizabeth 'Lizzie' Webb, daughter of Bowman Webb and Jane W. Biggs. Sarah was born on 16 Feb 1863 in Wyandot, Ohio, died on 1 Nov 1949 in Culver, Marshall County, Indiana, at age 86, and was buried in Culver, Marshall County, Indiana. Other names for Sarah were Elizabeth Zechiel, Sarah E. Webb, Sarah E Steininger, Elizabeth Webb, Sarah Elizabeth Zechiel, and Elizabeth Sarah Zechiel.

The Rochester (Fulton County Indiana) News-Sentinel

Frank STEINGER, 55, for many years a resident of the Whippoorwill neighborhood, died at his home in Harlan, Michigan, at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Death resulted from injuries he received by being struck by a street car while in Detroit last January. The deceased during his residence in this county was employed at farm duties, moving with his family to the Michigan town about ten years ago.

Besides the widow, the deceased leaves three children, all at home. Mrs. Chauncey HIATT of Loyal is a sister and George STEINGER of near Whippoorwill is a brother of the deceased. Word from Chauncey HIATT, who has been at the bedside of his brother-in-law for the past week, stated he would arrive in Rochester with the body early Wednesday morning. Funeral arrangements will be announced in tomorrow's issue.

The funeral services of Frank STEINGER will be held at the Grandview church, near Loyal, on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. MILLER of Harlan, Mich., will have charge of the services

TEAT SIX-YEAR-OLD ORATOR

Master Irving J. Steininger Interest a Peru Audience.

Peru, Ind., Sept. 27 - Master Irving Jay Steininger, the wonderful "boy orator," appeared here Friday evening at the opera house. He was suffering from a severe headache, and when somewhat advanced in the repetition of his temperance lecture he was for a time bewildered with the pain, and had to take a short rest. He finished the piece, and also delivered a recitation entitled "Babies." The large audience was wild in its applause.

An article from the Fort Wayne Sentinel (Fort Wayne, Indiana) dated November 10, 1890

"Master Irvin Steininger, the Hoosier boy orator, who appears at the Wayne street M.E. church to-morrow evening, is one of the wonders of the century. Although only six years old, he delivers sermons with the grace of a Talmage, and his speaking is wonderful. Master Irvin Steininger was born September 17, 1884, in Labette county, Kansas. He made his debut in the Academy of Music, at Rochester, Ind., April 16, 1890. The circumstances under which he became an orator, were stated in the se columns several days ago. Everybody should hear him."

Speaks Only What Is Taught Him

He is really a wonder. The father of the boy, Howard Steininger, is an ordinary looking man, a farmer, living near Rochester. Irving repeats only those sermons, recitations, etc., which his father has taught him. His sermons and speeches are mo stly composed by the father from his own and borrowed ideas, and while not being any easier for the child to learn, give an orginal tone to the performances. His 6th birthday occurred this month.

Fifty Years Ago

Irvin J. Steininger and Ruby Bunker were married April 15 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bunker, 705 Linden avenue.(Logansport, Indiana)

At about the age of 5, Irvin was giving speeches in many nearby states and became known as the "Hoosier Boy Orator".

Lloyd Steininger, 11 years of age, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Steininger of this city, accidentally shot and killed himself, Monday evening at seven o'clock at the home of his grandparents at Battle Creek, Mich. A telephone message to local relatives received last night, gave scant details of the fatality. The lad was playing with several other boys in the neighborhood, where the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sultz, reside, and in some unaccountable manner the 22 calibre rifle handled by Lloyd was discharged, the bullet entering his head directly below the nose. Screams from his companions soon brought members of the family to the scene of the accident, and the injured lad was rushed to a Battle Creek hospital where he died four hours later.

Arrive Home Wednesday.

Mr. Steininger, who is employed at the carpenter's trade at Battle Creek, left Rochester last Friday morning accompanied by his wife and family who were to spend a few weeks' visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sultz, of Battle Creek, before returning to their home on North Fulton avenue, this city. The dreadful news was accompanied by the information that the Steiningers would arrive in Rochester at 2:07 over the Erie, Wednesday afternoon, with their son's body, further stating that the funeral would be held at the Church of God, this city, on Thursday afternoon, with interment to be made at the South Germany cemetery. Besides his parents, the unfortunate youth is survived by two younger brothers, Herschel and Paul, and two sisters Nettie and Aria May. The father, Arlie Steininger had for many years been an employe of the Rochester Lumber Co.

Death Notes: Event Description: Age: 87

General Notes: Dwight F. Steinger was an evangelist who traveled throughout Indiana giving many church revivals.

The following is a notice of a local revival in Alexandria, Indiana.

The Alexandria Times-Tribune (Alexandria, Indiana) dated Wednesday October 7, 1959 on page 1.

'Nazarene Church revival campaign begins tonight

The Rev. Dwight f. Steinger, of Nashville, evangelist and chalk artist, will be the special speaker in a revival campaign in the local Church of the Nazarene beginning tonight and continuing through Oct. 18. Services will be held each evening at 7:30.

In his 22 years of ministry in the Church of the Nazarene, Rev. Steinger has been instrumental in organizing and establishing more than twenty churches.

In addition to his ministry of Bible preaching, the evangelist is well known for his talent as a chalk artist. He is a member of the Brown County Art Gallery Associations. Each evening he will illustrate a familiar hymn in colored chalk, displaying the completed drawing under lights of variegated colors and the black light. Someone in the audience will then receive the picture as a gift for bringing the most new people to the service.

Jim and Janet Crider of Shelbyville, talented musicians and singers, will be in charge of the special music and singing.

An article in the Garrett Clipper (Garrett, Indiana) dated April 20, 1961

Witmer, Inc.

Witmer, Inc., manufacturer of over 100 component parts and fittings for swimming pools, is in its second year of operation. The plant, located at 101 North Gulford street, was founded in Garrett.

Company officials state that after a year of developing its products the company is now in its first full fledged operating year. The plant specializes in diving boards ranging from 4 to 16 feet in length. Its portable board has been proclaimed by some to be the best on the market and is growing in popularity. This particular board is designed for use on pontoon boats, rafts, boat docks and swimming pools, yet can be carried in an automobile.

Employment at Wilmer totals seven. The company is beginning to take custom work for manufacturers outside the swimming pool industry in an effort to offset the seasonal aspect of its major products.

Wilbur (Bill) Witmer of Leo has resigned as president and general manager. The remaining officers of the corporation are David Hogg of Fort Wayne, vice president; Ray Leininger of Fort Wayne, vice president; and Dee Steinger of Spencerville, secretary-treasurer.

Ex-Rochester Native Disappears in Korea, His Relatives Told

Rochester - Aug. 12 - Mr. and Mrs. George Steinger, Fort Wayne, natives of Rochester, received word yesterday from the War Department that their son, Cpl. Obed Steinger, 19, is missing in action in Korea.

The telegram stated that Cpl. Steinger was either captured, killed or is in a hiding place as of July 20. The War Department said a letter would follow.

Cpl. Steinger was born in Fulton county and attended the Rochester city schools before his family moved to Ft. Wayne five years ago. Their residence was at 403 Pontiac street and Mr. Steinger was employed by the Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc.

Cpl. Steinger is the first Fulton county native to be a casualty of the Korean affair. He enlisted in the army two years ago. He was the son of George and Edith (Cummings) Steinger. Other relatives are two sisters, Mrs. Galen Eiler, Roann; and Mrs. George Spellman, Ft. Wayne. He is a grandson of Warren Cummings, 1224 South Jefferson street and a nephew of Herman Steinger.

Obituary - Logansport Pharos Tribune (Logansport, Indiana), dated January 2, 1951, on page 5.

Pfc. Obed Nelson (Bud) Steinger, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Steinger, 2540 Weisser Ave.; Fort Wayne, was killed on July 20 in the Korean war it has been announced by the United States War Department. Steinger was born in Richland township and with his parents moved to Ft. Wayne in 1944. Survivors are the parents, two sisters, Mrs. Galen Eiler, Roann and Mrs. George Spellman, Ft. Wayne. Rochester relatives who are aunts and uncles of the dead soldier are Herman Steinger, Al Cummings and Mrs. Thurl Alber.

Obituary - Logansport Press, Logansport, Indiana, dated December 31, 1950, on page 4.

Fulton Native Killed in Korea
Death of Bud Steinger, 19, Is Reported

Rochester, Dec. 30 - The first Fulton county native to be killed in the Korean war has been reported by the United States Department of Defense. He is Pfc. Obed Nelson (Bud) Steinger, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Steinger, 2340 Weisser avenue, Ft. Wayne, who was killed July 20.

Pfc. Steinger was born on a farm north of this city in Richland township. His parents had received word from the defense department previously that he was missing in action. Pfc. Steinger was a member of the 34th regiment, 24th Infantry division under the command of Maj. Gen. William F. Dea, who was also reported missing July 20.

Pfc. Steinger attended the Lincoln grade school in this city. His family moved to Ft. Wayne, in 1944. He entered the service in Ft. Wayne, July 27, 1948, and took his basic training at Ft. Knox. He left the United States for duty in Japan, Jan. 1949.

The dead soldier's father at one time operated a telephone company at Whippowill in Richland township, until it was purchased by the Rochester Telephone Company.

Survivors are his parents and two sisters: Mrs. Galen Eiler, Roann; Mrs. George Spellman, Ft. Wayne. Other survivors include Herman Steinger of this city, brother of the victim's father, and his mother's sister and brother, Mrs. Thurl Alber and Al Cummings, of here. Warren Cummings, who passed away several weeks ago, was the maternal grandfather.

An article in the Logansport Press, Logansport, Indiana, dated May 11, 1952, page 15.

"The bodies of two G.I.'s killed in Korea, both natives of Fulton county, arrived in San Francisco, Friday, on "The South Bend Victory" with 138 other Americans who lost their lives in battle in Korea. The were Pfc. Jesse E. Gagnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal Gagnon, Akron, and Pfc. Obed E. Steininger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Steininger, Ft. Wayne. Both of the dead were serving in the army. George Steininger is a brother of Herman Steininger, 216 North Jefferson street, this city. The Herman Steininger (actually George Steininger) family resided in Rochester prior to taking up their residence in Ft. Wayne. A memorial service was held recently in Ft. Wayne for Pfc. O. Steininger prior to word that his body would be returned to the United States. Funeral arrangements are incomplete for the two dead soldiers.

Drowning Victim To Be Buried Friday From Olive Bethel

ROCHESTER - Funeral services for Larry Kindig, 19, of route 2, Akron, who Tuesday became Fulton county's first drowning victim in four years, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Olive Bethel Church of God. Born Sept. 7, 1940 in Fulton county, he was the son of Byron and Mildred (Steininger) Kindig. He was a member of the Olive Bethel church.

Surviving are the parents and two brothers, the Rev. Clifford Kindig, Lebanon, and Paul, at home.

The Rev. Hubert Johnston and the Rev. Carl Overholser will officiate at the services and burial will be at the Mt. Hope cemetery in Athens.

Friends may call at the Hauptert funeral home in Akron after 2 p.m. today and until noon Friday and at the church one hour before services.

Wednesday, August 31, 1960 Rochester Sentinel

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Olive Bethel church for Larry KINDIG, 19, R.R. 2, Akron, who became Fulton county's first drowning victim in four years Tuesday evening. The boy and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron KINDIG, were fishing on Mud or Barr lake on the Gaston Copen farm 7 1/2 miles northeast of Rochester and four miles northwest of Akron in Newcastle township when the tragedy occurred at 6:20 p.m. Tuesday. The youth, who was crippled, and his parents were fishing in a small rowboat. Mrs. Kindig, who was sitting in the bow of the boat, shifted her weight in the boat to get a different position, causing the boat to capsize. Mrs. Kindig grabbed onto the boat and Kindig grabbed a hold of the boat with one hand and his son, by the tee shirt which the son was wearing, with the other. Harold Van DOREN, R.R. 2, Akron, and George SMITH, R.R. 2, Akron, who were fishing nearby rushed to help the family. When Van Doren reached the scene the father, who was nearly exhausted from trying to hold on to the boat and his son both, was going under the water's surface. Van Doren grabbed frantically and caught hold of the father's hair. At the same instant the father lost his grip on his son. Van Doren managed to get the struggling father into the boat. Smith in the meantime had taken the mother into his boat. The two hosts carrying the panic-stricken parents went to the shore, and Van Doren ran to the Ransford PETERSON residence about one-half mile from the lake to call the sheriff. By the time Van Doren reached the house he was out of breath, and Peterson called the sheriff's department at 6:43 o'clock. Sheriff Willard CLARK and Special Deputy Richard BAIR, 915 Franklin street, rushed to the fire department to obtain grappling hooks, at which time they notified the fire department of the accident. Firemen started for the scene with their resuscitation equipment. In the meantime the sheriff's department contacted the state police and Conservation officer Ray REKER. Upon the sheriff's department arrival at the scene three boats immediately began the search for the submerged youth. In one boat there was Bair and Bud MOORE, Athens, who was at the scene. Van Doren and Paul KINDIG, the drowned boy's brother, were in the second and in the third boat was the boy's father and Sheriff Clark. Bair was using the grappling hook, and located the body at 7:25 o'clock. The three boats had made only three passes over the area where they believed the body to be located. The body was found between 40 and 50 feet offshore in 18 feet of water. After Bair found the body, Clark and the father put it in their boat and the father rowed the boat to shore. Rochester firemen who were at the scene attempted to revive the youth, but failed to do so and the boy was pronounced dead at 7:40 o'clock by Fulton county coroner, Dr. Howard ROWE, who was assisted by deputy coroner Lyman BAKER. Firemen assisting at the scene were Chief Bud BRAMAN, John RICHARDS, George CLARK and Gene MELTON. State police at the scene assisted the sheriff's department in getting all of the details of the drowning. The death brought the total of accidental deaths in Fulton county to 17 persons in 1960. Larry Kindig was born Sept. 7, 1940, in Fulton county to Byron and Mildred STEININGER KINDIG. He was a member of the Olive Bethel Church of God. Surviving are the parents, at home, and two brothers, the Rev. Clifford KINDIG, Lebanon, and Paul [KINDIG], at home. The Rev. Hubert JOHNSTON and the Rev. Carl OVERHOLSER will officiate at the services and burial will be at the Mt. Hope cemetery in Athens. Friends may call at the Hauptert funeral home in Akron after 2 p.m. Thursday until noon Friday.

Ronald
Marietta
Ethel May
Everett Lee
Donna Faye
Phyllis Irene
Max
Maxine
Sylvia

He was one of the twins of the three sets of twins born to Marion and Mary Woodcox. His twin was Donna Faye.

At work, he was known as Woody, but among family and neighbors he went by Dean, choosing not to use his first name, Orville.

He lived in South Bend Indiana all of his life and married Patricia Ann Beebe on September 26, 1950 at South Side Church of God in South Bend, St. Joseph County, Indiana.

To this union, three children were born:

Victoria
Pamela
Dean

He worked for a time at the Studebaker Auto Company but retired from the Ball Ban/Uniroyal Corporation located in Mishawaka, St. Joseph County, Indiana.

He thought the Studebaker was the only car to drive until Studebaker closed it's doors. Then he went to Oldsmobiles. He was very "anti-Ford".

He and Patricia enjoyed camping and traveling in their fifth wheel. They traveled from Alaska to Florida and were able to visit Hawaii as well. He also enjoyed short wave radio.

After the death of his wife Patricia, he visited Colorado where he met and married Oreta Kinlaw on December 27, 1990 at Mesa County, Colorado. After their marriage, he returned to South Bend with Oreta. She moved back to Colorado in 1998 and file d for divorce. A divorce decree was granted on June 11, 1999 at Mesa County, Colorado.

No children were born to this union.

Ernest "Ernie" Hiatt died Oct. 21, 2015, after a battle with cancer.

He did so much to add to the quality of life in Fulton County and influenced so many people I felt that he should be memorialized by someone who knew him for many years. I attended Woodrow Elementary School with his wife Carolyn, so I feel moved to tell his story. My sons camped at Ernie's farm when in Boy Scouts in the 1970s. So Bill and I have been friends with Ernie for most of our lives.

Ernie was born June 3, 1934, to Clarence and Charlotte Hiatt on a farm in Richland Township, Fulton County. He was a lifelong resident of Richland Township. As a young man he helped his family at the Farmers Market in South Bend, taking chickens and produce there to sell.

Ernie graduated from Richland Center High School in 1952. He joined U.S. Naval Reserves on April 10, 1952, at age 17. Sheriff Laurence Norris had to sign to show that he had no arrests in order for him to join underage. He graduated from Great Lakes Naval Base Oct. 3, 1952, came home and married Carolyn Woods on Oct. 5, 1952. They were married 63 years. He served 16 years but never went overseas. The last six years were spent as a recruiter in South Bend. He was honorably discharged in 1969.

He operated his Hiatt Electric Company at Leiters Ford 1956-1975 when he moved the business to his home and continued until recently.

A lifetime Boy Scout member, Scoutmaster and executive, Ernie was awarded the Silver Beaver, was in Order of the Arrow and was a trainer for Wood badge leaders.

An outgoing person, Ernie joined many organizations: Masonic Lodge for 50 years, American Legion and Moose Lodge and Scottish Rite, in which he was a lifetime member. He was also in Rochester Kiwanis Club.

Ernie was one of the founders, or first to join, Fulton County Sheriff Reserves and served 34 years. He was president a couple of years. He was founder and first president of Fulton County Parks Department. He started a Coleman Museum in 1985 at his home in a building that he filled with lanterns, stoves, all kinds of Coleman items, even a Coleman motorbike. In 1983 he started a Coleman Collectors Club. He published the Coleman Collectors Courier for several years.

When the Akron Jonah Club disbanded in 1978, Ernie, a member of the club since 1962, bought their fish frying equipment. He continued to cook fish for the community to raise money for projects that ranged from helping with funeral expenses to helping the museum and churches and other groups. His fish fry truck burned at the Fulton County Museum in October 2010 but he rebuilt it and sold it in 2015.

Carolyn threw a party for his 80th birthday at the Fulton County Museum in 2014. More than 400 people attended.

I remember when Ernie was president of the Fulton County Historical Society in 1970. He was a charter member of the historical society from its beginning in 1963. He served on the society board of directors the last two years of his life. He was also a member of the Fulton County Historical Power Association and was in charge of the food vendors during their shows. He owned seven antique Allis Chalmers tractors.

On the political scene, Ernie was a member of the Richland Township election board, Richland Township Advisory Board, Fulton County Zoning Board - one of the first members - and the youngest member of Indiana Conservation Inc., for which he had an office in Indianapolis.

Ernie and Carolyn were blessed with two children, Gary and Cheryl. Ernie drove an Amish taxi for several years to help his Amish neighbors.

Ernie gave comedy programs, imitating Chick Sales on how to build an outhouse, and Charley Weaver. Dressed as an old-timer, he was hilarious. The last time I saw Ernie was when he was in Hickory Creek nursing home. His memory was perfect and he chatted with my husband Bill for more than an hour about old times and old friends. I gave him my Trail of Courage badge. He said he wanted a gooseberry pie, so I told Melinda Clinger. Her mother made a gooseberry pie for him and he was so happy. He refused to eat supper but had pie.

Anderson Lake is on Ernie's farm on County Road 450 North about four miles west of U.S. 31. This is believed to be the site of one of Chief Aubbeenaubbee's villages and the birthplace of Abram Burnett, who was on the 1838 Trail of Death. Ernie built a clubhouse at the lake and had reunions, picnics and meetings there.

I wish I had written down all the stories Ernie told me. He told of riding the school bus and the bus driver, William Miller, told of cemeteries no longer in existence. Ernie recalled the old Boy Scout camp at the present Ruth Kern Nature Preserve, the busloads of scouts that came from Chicago to stay at the camp, so many, many stories.

I told him that he should write a book, but he never did.

So this is my tribute to Ernie Hiatt, an old friend and fellow historian. We will long reap the benefits from his life on this earth.

Mr. Gene Hiatt, 72 of Rochester, passed away at 3:01 PM on Monday, November 16, 2015 at his farm.

On May 23, 1943, Nelson Gene born in Richland Township, a treasured son of Clarence L. and Charlotte McMillen Hiatt. Growing up he shared his childhood with a sister and three brothers. Gene developed a life long passion for agriculture, spending his youth on the family farm. He graduated from Richland Center High School in 1962.

Pursuing his formal education, Gene studied at the Bemidji Bible Institute in Minnesota for three years. During this time he spent six months in the Holy Land, specifically Dothan, Jordan, as an archeologist studying archeology. Returning home he enrolled at Bethel College earning a bachelor's degree in elementary education. Gene continued his education attaining a master's degree in elementary education from the University of St. Francis in Ft. Wayne.

Mr. Hiatt taught elementary school in Winamac for seven years before refocusing his professional career as a full time farmer. During his teaching years, Gene kept his eye out for a student who possessed the initial qualities of an underdog. It was a personal goal to elevate that student and arm him or her with leadership qualities making a change in their young lives.

In Plymouth, Gene married the love of his life and best friend, Jo Ruth Good on June 21, 1969. Together they shared more than 46 years of life's adventures. Their union produced four wonderful children, Stephen, Michael, Miriam and Rachel. The blessing of another generation has been added to the family tree with ten grandchildren.

Gene's passion for farming involved a wide varied spectrum. From his family farm he annually led in the planting of a huge truck patch garden. The bountiful harvest was enjoyed by his family, but also his loyal customers at the Hiatt Garden Farm Market's of Plymouth and Rochester and the South Bend Farmer's Market. As an entrepreneur, he raised chickens and turkeys and opened a processing operation on his Richland Township homestead. From 1990 - 1997 Gene and his family owned and operated the Hiatt Ice Company.

For over four decades, Gene served as the South Bend Farmer's Market as President. He was active with the Gideons International for many years, serving a zone leader. More recently he was a charter member of The Cross Church in Rochester where he worked on many committees. Gene was especially proud of the many short term missionary trips to Honduras, Escusla el Sanbrado. It was here that he taught the villagers how to plant, maintain the crops and maximize the harvest of a truck patch garden. A lifelong teacher at heart he also taught them how to set up a poultry farm complete with processing operation. These gifts allowed the local farmers to be self-sustaining and independent.

Together Gene and Ruth raised four children who all contribute to our community. What a legacy he has left them, instilling basic values and many of the ingredients to lead a successful, productive life. As a role model he demonstrated a strong work ethic, loyalty and how to maintain independence, just naming a few of life's lessons. He had an uncanny ability to identify a weakness with his offspring and help them overcome, creating a new found strength.

Born with a birth defect to his right hand, Gene not only persevered but prevailed never allowing that to overcome him or stop his progress. He would make modifications re-inventing methods to accommodate that little hurdle. In his early years he was an accomplished basketball player, could clean and cut up a chicken faster or carry a five gallon bucket just like anyone. His positive attitude was unparalleled.

Left to cherish Gene's memory are his loving wife Ruth; two daughters: Miriam Miller and husband Tim of Macy, Rachel Schnitz and husband Kyle of Rochester; two sons: Stephen "Goose" Hiatt of Rochester, Michael Hiatt and wife Julie of Rochester; 10 grandchildren: Maddison Hiatt, Mikayla Hiatt, Mallory Hiatt, Peyton Hiatt, Hannah Miller, Leah Miller, Rivkah Miller, Silas Miller, Emma Rae Schnitz, Ella Grace Schnitz; a sister, Kathryn Hiatt, of Plymouth; two brothers: Pat Hiatt and wife Patty of Rochester, Phil Hiatt and wife Shirley of Plymouth; a sister-in-law, Carol Hiatt of Rochester; and several nieces and nephews. Preceding Gene in death are his parents, a grandchild, and a brother Ernest Hiatt on October 21, 2015.
